Dated this the 8th day of October, 2007

O R D E R

Application for anticipatory bail. Apprehending that he may be arrested on the basis of a complaint filed under Section 420 I.P.C. before the learned Magistrate and referred to the police under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C., the petitioner has come before this Court seeking anticipatory bail. The learned Prosecutor submits that there is no crime registered against the petitioner and there is no intention whatsoever to arrest the petitioner. No reference has been made under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. also, submits the Prosecutor.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner was requested to ascertain and report whether any such complaint has been referred to the police for investigation. The learned counsel submits that except the information conveyed to the petitioner by the police, the petitioner has no information.

3. The submissions of the Prosecutor, that there is no crime registered against the petitioner and he is not required to the arrested, are taken note of and recorded. It is now evident that the apprehension of the petitioner is without any basis or merit.

3. This application is hence dismissed.
